

On Quantization of Coulomb Branches

Du Pei

Abstract

The study of Coulomb branches of supersymmetric quantum field theories has in recent years led to many interesting insights into geometry and representation theory. In this talk, I will discuss the A-models with Coulomb branch targets, and show how to use them to better understand the representation theory of double affine Hecke algebras.